SHERLOCK HOLMES AGAIN.

A New Series of Detective Stories in the Kansas City Star.

Conan Doyle's detective stories, with the marvelous Sherlock Holmes as their hero, have achieved the greatest success of recent years. Appreciating this fact the publisher of Collier's Weekly, New York, induced Mr. Doyle to write a final series of the great detective's adventures. Repeated refusals were followed by increased inducements, and finally Mr. Doyle agreed to write 13 stories for $45,000, or about 60 cents a word. The entire correspondence was by cable. The amount paid by Collier's is the largest ever paid for such work and does not include the right to publish the stories in book form. By special arrangement with Collier's, these famous stories are being printed in The Kansas City Star, one story each week, beginning, in the daily edition, Saturday, February 11, and in the Weekly, Wednesday, February 15. None of the present popular features of The Star will be cut down or omitted to make room for this remarkable set of stories. Practically the contents of a $150 book will be added to the contents of The Star, in three months, without any increase of the subscription price, 10 cents a week for The Daily Star (morning, evening and Sunday, 13 complete papers a week), and 25 cents a year for The Weekly Star.
